

Wrong dollar figure in fire and misspelling Redevelopment did You some Damage B -

Joe Bustillos (Student # 862-0635) COMM201 - Leads

1 LA Shelter

misspelled proper noun

A Skid Row shelter for the homeless, which was developed by Los Angeles Mayor Tom Bradley's administration, will close ~~down~~ next week unless the Community Redevelopment Agency gives ~~them~~ <sup>VIT</sup> $300,000 ~~to~~, according to the shelter's operators.

2 East LA Fire

How many?

Some of the residents of an East Los Angeles apartment building jumped from their second-story windows to escape a fire that broke out before 5:45 Wednesday morning. About 80 people were left homeless by the fire at the Brooklyn Hotel in Boyle Heights which also left 14 people injured, four seriously, and caused an estimated $220,000 damage, according to Los Angeles city fire officials.

Wrong figure

3 Wrongful Death Suit

A Compton Superior Court jury awarded $1.3 million in a wrongful death suit to a Hispanic family on Wednesday. The civil suit charged that when sheriff's deputies shot and killed Jildardo Plasencia in his Willowbrook garage on New Year's Eve in 1980, Plasencia, who spoke only Spanish, could not have known that they were ordering him to drop the unloaded gun that he was holding.